Scene ... "Couples Retreat" star Kali Hawk was recently seen shopping for furs at Saks Fifth Avenue in Greenwich and later having soup at Meli-Melo Crêperie on Greenwich Avenue. Hawk is in Fairfield County with fellow actors Kerry Washington and Craig Robinson until mid-December filming "We the Peeples," a Tyler Perry production. Filming took place recently in Cove Island Park in Stamford.

Last Friday night Hawk was seen at Twin Rinks in Stamford where she attended the birthday party of an 11-year-old girl playing an extra on set. She not only attended the skating party, but arrived with gifts and a horde of oversized musical balloons from Party City.

Scene ... "Dancing with the Stars" choreographer and finance professional Christian Perry was seen working on his golf swing at CLAY Health Club and Spa in Port Chester, N.Y., on Friday. The new health club offers a state-of-the-art diagnostic sports lab. Perry's dancing career has included a performance at last year's Oscars and in movies including "Mona Lisa Smile," "Be Cool" and "Meet Dave." He and his wife, Annette, live in Los Angeles, and are in the process of developing real estate property on Round Hill Road in Greenwich. The couple plan to list the four-acre property and newly renovated 6,000-square-foot home next month.
